

JUNE McGRANE

ACTOR SINGER VOICE -OVER

June McGrane is an actor, singer and voice-over artist. She works between France, Ireland and England, in both English and French. June recently wrote, directed and performed in SAMHAIN Spirits and Souls for the Irish Cultural Centre, Paris. □ She is currently performing with Kaimera Productions in an immersive theatrical version of The Cherry Orchard by Anton Chekhov and with Mamaille in Great Expectations by Charles Dickens. June has performed with Foothorn Travelling Theatre playing Molière's Dorimène and Shakespeare's Juliet, Titania and Lady Macbeth. The international voice for Biotherm, June has also lent her voice to Chanel, Hermès, Lancôme, Shiseido, Disneyland Paris, Air France.... she can be heard in animation series -The Pirates Next Door, Dogmatix and The Indominatbles, in films -Human, Funny Birds, in video games -The Division 2, in projects for Arte and Radio France and in audio guides at the Louvre... June collaborates regularly with contemporary performance artists, most recently with Sarah Trouche for her choreographed work Vertical Strike - Je Ne Peux Pas Rester Silencieuse and Catherine Bay's Blanche Neige - Le Banquet at the Centre Pompidou, Paris. For the past twenty years she has collaborated with Fais Moi Rêver, writing and performing for Theatre In Education and bringing music to patients and their families in Palliative Care. June composes and sings with the improvisation music group Underpressure.
